Why Sing Scripture?

“Your statutes are my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.”

Psalm 119:54

Seeing that man in his finitude and his fallen state is unable to know God and worship Him as is fitting for His glory (Genesis 4:3-5, Romans 1:18-32; 3:10-18; 14:23, 1 Timothy 6:16), we confess that all areas of the worship of God are to be governed by God’s special revelation in His word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16-17). All worship, including musical worship, is to be what God commands and gives to us so that we may worship Him in faith without the stain of idolatry according to the whims and imaginations of men. This is the regulative principle of worship.

In our zeal for obedience to Ephesians 5:19 and Colossians 3:16, we believe that the phrase “word of Christ” in Col. 3:16 gives the meaningful context of “psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.” This compels us to restrict our songs of worship in the gathering of the congregation, especially on the Lord’s Day, to the songs of Scripture in the book of Psalms, and the Old and New Testament. We read and preach the Word of Christ, we pray according to the pattern given by Christ in the Word of Christ, and so we are to sing the Word of Christ. We are also compelled to therefore reject the uninspired songs and poems of uninspired men, and we seek to sing the God-breathed songs that were written by the holy men who were filled with God the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:20-21). We also believe that singing uninspired hymns is a slippery slope leading to the inevitability of the neglect of singing God’s infallible Word.

We believe the inspired songs and doxologies of the Old and New Testament are to be sung with joy also, but the fact that singing the book of Psalms in congregational worship is completely nonexistent in the church today is not only a detriment to the health of the church, it is in disobedience to the Holy Spirit who wrote the Psalms through the prophets and has led to the sickly and wicked state of our churches, cities, and country. We believe that it is good and commanded by God to sing every Psalm, from 1 to 150, so that God’s people will be equipped as soldiers to fight, not flesh and blood, but the principalities and powers of darkness from which we’ve been saved by Christ our King. This includes imprecatory prayers in the Psalms, and psalms of judgement should also be sung as it is pleasing to God (Luke 18:7, 2 Thessalonians 1:6-10, Revelation 6:10; 19:1-5).

Since God’s elect have sung the Psalms for thousands of years, God commands us to sing Psalms, and God gave us the Psalms specifically for us to sing praises to Him that are pleasing to Him and edifying to the saints, shall we disobey the King’s command and view Him through the minds of fallible men, even good men, instead of the mind of the Holy Spirit?

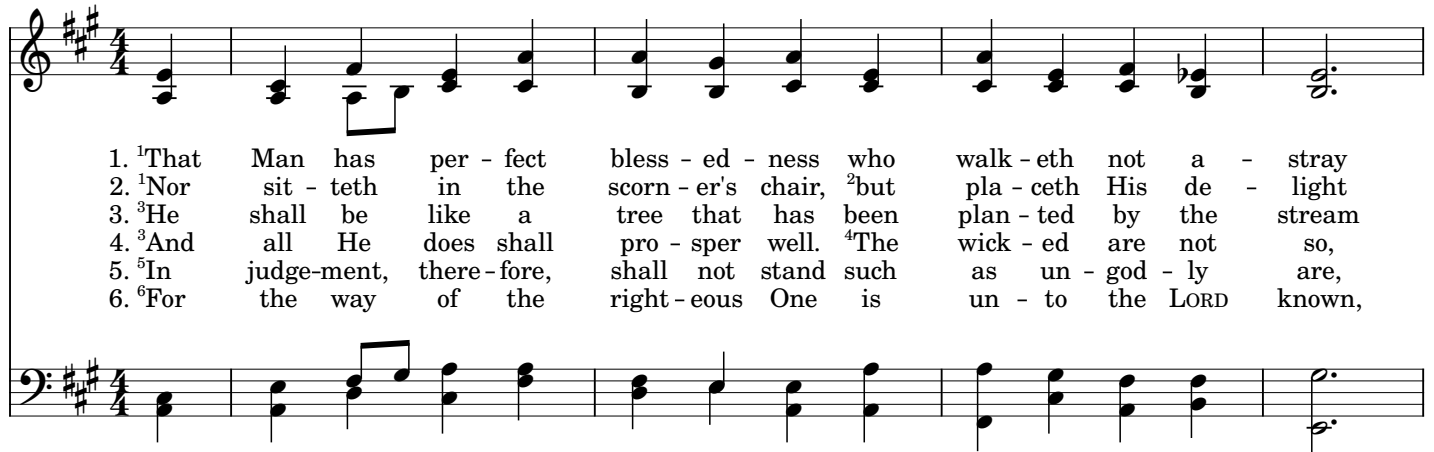

“Let everything that has breath praise the LORD. Praise the LORD!” (Psalm 150:6)

²My voice and pleas for mercy hear, when for Your help I cry;

⁷The LORD's my strength and shield; my heart up on Him did rely;
⁹O save Your people and now bless Your heritage O Lord;

16

when to Your holy place I pray and lift my hands on high.
 and after the work of their hands, do You to them repay.
 And I have been helped hence my heart does joy exceeding ly.

Psalm 75

For the choir director; set to Al-tashheth. A Psalm of Asaph, a Song.

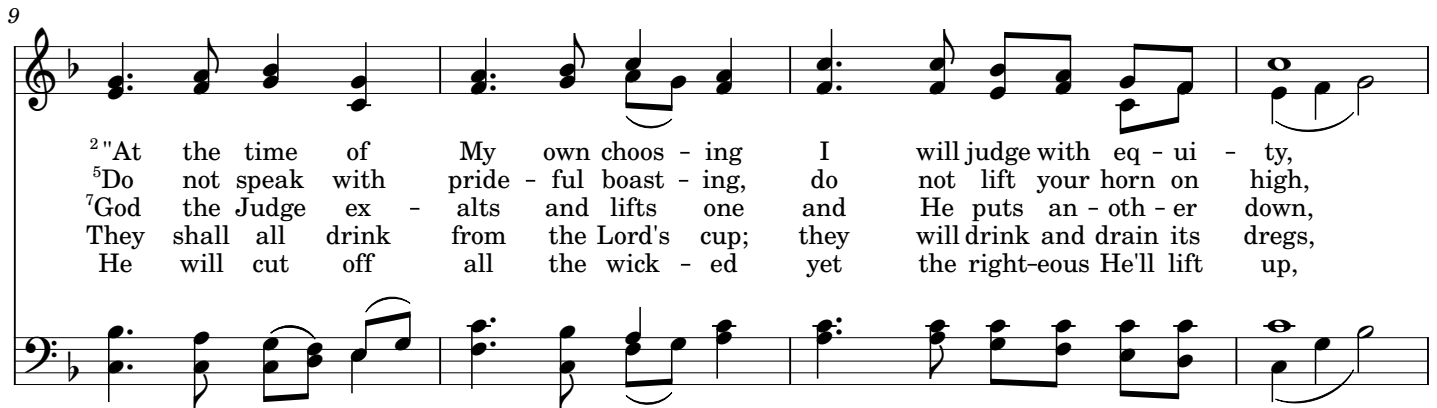

1. ¹We thank You, O God we give thanks; for Your name is near to us.
 2. ³When earth quakes and all its hosts, I am He who its pil-lars shores.
 3. ⁶Not the east, nor from the west, nor des-ert plac-es, nor far lands;
 4. ⁸For a cup is in the LORD's hand. The wine foams; His wrath is near.
 5. ⁹As for Me, for now and ev-er, I'll de-clare and sing God's praise.

5

Men de-clare Your won-der-ful works for in Your grace do we trust.
⁴To the proud and wic-ked I say, 'Do not boast nor lift your horn.'
 none of these, nor noth-ing earth-ly will ex-alt and raise a man.
 Well mixed wine, He pours forth from it; sure-ly wick-ed men shall fear.
 I will praise the God of Ja-cob. ¹⁰His saints will have their horns raised.

9

²"At the time of My own choos-ing I will judge with eq-ui-ty,
⁵Do not speak with pride-ful boast-ing, do not lift your horn on high,
⁷God the Judge ex-alt and lifts one and He puts an-oth-er down,
 They shall all drink from the Lord's cup; they will drink and drain its dregs,
 He will cut off all the wick-ed yet the right-eous He'll lift up,

13

I will judge with eq-ui-ty.
 do not lift your horn on high.
 and He puts an-oth-er down.
 they will drink and drain its dregs.
 yet the right-eous He'll lift up!"

Worship Leader: For thus says the LORD, “You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money.” For thus says the Lord GOD, “My people went down at the first into Egypt to reside there; then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what do I have here,” declares the LORD, “seeing that My people have been taken away without cause?” Again the LORD declares, “Those who rule over them howl, and My name is continually blasphemed all day long. Therefore My people shall know My name; therefore in that day I am the one who is speaking, ‘Here I am.’”

Congregation: How lovely on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who announces peace and brings good news of happiness, who announces salvation, and says to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

Worship Leader: Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, they shout joyfully together; for they will see with their own eyes when the LORD restores Zion. Break forth, shout joyfully together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD has bared His holy arm in the sight of all the nations, that all the ends of the earth may see the salvation of our God.

Congregation: Depart, depart go out from there, touch nothing unclean; go out of the midst of her, purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD. But you will not go out in haste, nor will you go as fugitives; for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Worship Leader: After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands; and they cry out with a loud voice, saying,

Congregation: "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

Congregation: "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Worship Leader: Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

Congregation: "For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne will spread His tabernacle over them. They will hunger no longer, nor thirst anymore; nor will the sun beat down on them, nor any heat; for the Lamb in the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life; and God will wipe every tear from their eyes."
